10.	Objective of the Subject	 Introduce students to some Basic English. Raise students' level of proficiency in the four language skills. Improve students' confidence and ability as language learners. Serve as a transitional link to higher level English.
11.	Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of LENG1013, students should be able to: Ilisten and speak speak with some confidence on social matters. read with reasonable accuracy for pleasure. communicate facts and ideas reasonably accurate through writing. develop vocabulary that will enhance their oral and written skills and have sufficient grasp of the language to communicate what is read.
12.	Synopsis	LENG1013 is the first level English language subject, which is especially designed for undergraduates with very little English. The topics are thematically organized, task-based and student-centered. Structured speaking tasks, incorporating systematic work on reading and writing, encourage students to express themselves more appropriately. The reading and writing tasks are accompanied by model language and essential grammar for different situations. The tasks and activities are generally graded in terms of difficulty and are designed in such a way that students are gradually encouraged to be independent learners.
